

Crosslinks Call for Submissions

The Community Relations subcommittee of the Clonard Stewardship Council recognises the importance the role of our past students play in our school and continue to play in our community.

The Crosslinks magazine features articles from Old Collegians who have a story to tell about their experiences at Clonard and the path their lives have taken since leaving. We ask if you could please spare the time to provide us with a small article and a couple of photos focusing on any or all of your studies, career, achievements, family and Clonard memories.

If you would like to contribute to the Crosslinks magazine or update your contact details, please provide the following information
